ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE RESEARCH LAB

ACCOMPLISHMENTS 2026

Students who secured national and international achievements through Hackathons, Open-Source Contributions and Product Development

August 2026

HackerRank Orchestrate – 24-Hour AI-Agent Hackathon | August 2026

Participants: Nitish R.G., Shreekumar B., Suchit, Santheesh, Arun Prasath & Nakshatra S.V.

Achievement: Among 1,983 participants, our students secured impressive leaderboard rankings:

Nitish R.G. – World Rank #162,
Shreekumar B. – #209
Suchit – #558
Arun Prasath – #1215
Santheesh – #1227
Nakshatra S.V. – #1360.

International Faraway Hackathon – Global Selection

Two student teams from the institution were selected for the prestigious International Hackathon, "Faraway Hackathon," organized by Zuup and conducted at Patiala on 22–23 August 2026. The teams showcased innovative ideas, strong problem-solving abilities, and the capability to develop impactful technology solutions. Their selection reflects the institution's excellence in Artificial Intelligence, software development, and product innovation on an international platform.

Achievement

- Competed against 11,000+ participants worldwide.
- Secured a place among the Top 100 teams globally.
- Represented SIET at an international hackathon.

Java Package Development for AI Applications

Prabhu Siddarth A V (III Year, IT) successfully developed SIDD-AI, a lightweight and framework-independent Java SDK for AI applications. The package enables developers to integrate leading AI models such as OpenAI, Google Gemini, Anthropic Claude, and Ollama through a single unified API, making AI integration in Java applications simple, efficient, and reusable. The package has gained recognition within the developer community for its practical usability and open-source contribution.

Achievement

- Java AI library developed
- Reusable APIs for AI integration
- Demonstrated advanced software engineering skills
- More than 450 downloads within two weeks of launch
- Around 33 companies downloaded the package
- Open-source contribution for AI developers

International Internship

Nitish R. G (II Year, CSE)

- Selected as an AI Intern at Movvr Pvt. Ltd. for a one-month internship.
- Ranked among the Top 50 participants in the Sarvam AI Epoch Buildathon from over 700 participants.

June 2026

Python Package for Model Context Protocol (MCP)

Mahibala H (III Year, CSE) successfully developed a Python package for Model Context Protocol (MCP), enabling seamless communication between AI agents, external tools, and software applications. The package contributes to the open-source AI ecosystem and has received significant adoption from developers.

Achievement

- Successfully published an MCP Python package
- More than 4,000 downloads
- Over 1,000 downloads within the first three days
- Open-source contribution for AI developers

International AI Competitions & Hackathons

- Competition: HackerRank Orchestrate June 2026 (Autonomous AI Agents)

Participant: Nitish R. G - II Year CSE

Achievement: Developed a production-grade autonomous AI agent system under competitive conditions and secured World Rank #73.

- Competition: HackerRank SQL International Challenge

Participant: Nitish R. G - II Year CSE

Achievement: Secured World Rank #1 and earned the Gold Badge (5★ SQL).

- Competition: Frontier Hackathon (Colosseum × Solana)

Participants: Nitish R. G (II CSE), Padmanabhan Suresh Babu (II CSE), Prithic P (II AIIML), Mithunesh K (II CSE), and Viswanath N (II CSE).

Achievement: Selected for the international hackathon and accepted into the $250K Pre-Seed Funding Track, receiving startup mentorship and ecosystem support.

- Competition: Meta × PyTorch × Hugging Face OpenEnv Hackathon

Participants: Nitish R. G (II CSE), Padmanabhan Suresh Babu (II CSE), and Prithic P (II AIIML)

Achievement: Secured a position among the Top 800 teams globally out of 72,000+ participants.

May 2026

- Competition: HackerRank Orchestrate – Autonomous AI Agents

Participant: Nitish R. G (II CSE)

Achievement: Secured World Rank #384.

- Event: Claude Code Builders Conference (Anthropic)

Participant: Nitish R. G (II CSE)

Achievement: Selected as one of only five speakers from more than 3,300 global applicants.
